

Meet Barb Stanek

Barb Stanek has been teaching dogs and people for over ten years. She has trained her own dogs Rudy and Trio to titles in conformation, agility, obedience, and water work. She has also taught both dogs to work in a hospital pet therapy program and a reading program for children.

Barb is a Certified Pet Dog Trainer and is a member of the Association of Pet Dog Trainers. She is also certified as a Canine Good Citizen Evaluator through the American Kennel Club.

Barb annually attends conferences, seminars, competitions, and workshops to keep herself current in all areas of dog training. She specializes in training for pet dog owners and competition teams alike.
